Here's some updated info from Carl. I had asked them to send us any updates they had.

Chip – Sorry I did not send this yesterday. Here are the updated process materials. The themes and process table has been revised (in red) to show updates since the last version you saw. The road to the proposed plan schedule is unchanged since Dec. 5th draft. Some of the green meeting items in that schedule could be shifted to be more exactly in line with the dates in the updated themes and process table, but they are generally consistent as is.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks.

Carl
